SPANISH AND HONORS CROSS-LISTED

CRN #	HONR CROSSLISTED	SPAN CROSSLISTED	TITLE	DAY	TIME	ROOM	INSTRUCTOR	NOTE:
	HONR 485-001	SPAN 491-001	The Modernist Poetics of Federico Garcia Lorca	TR	9:30-10:45	HLG 424	Bary, Leslie

*Federico García Lorca (1898-1936) is the most famous Spanish modernist, as well as the most famous Spanish writer besides Cervantes. This course is an advanced introduction to his complete works, including experimental plays like Así que pasen cinco años and El público and the New York poetry, as well as the gender-bending and homoerotic writing suppressed until the late twentieth century. All the works are short and most are available in English as well as Spanish.*

This course has research funding from the University to support library acquisitions, a small book budget for each student, and visits from two major speakers, Jonathan Mayhew (University of Kansas) an internationally renowned Lorca scholar, and Elena Castro (LSU) very well known for her work on avant-garde and experimental writing. Each student will develop a research portfolio on García Lorca and will participate in our common research project, which we will submit for publication.

Lorca's work addresses multiple social and artistic issues, and invites a broad range of commentary and creative response. There is a substantial body of critical work on him although much is left to be said. His writing has also generated creative projects in music and other arts. We will emphasize the multifaceted nature of his work, and the multidisciplinary nature of the responses it has generated. We will speak slow Spanish in class, but non-Spanish majors may read and write in English or French. The course is open to advanced undergraduates and graduate students. It satisfies the University requirement in literature, and counts toward the major and minor in Spanish.
