Which seminar is on your Spring 2018 class schedule?  HONR 110  210  310  410

If you are not registered for Seminar and submitting an essay only, please check here: ___

HONORS ESSAY TOPICS  for Neuromancer, by William Gibson
All students enrolled in seminar must submit an essay.  Staple your essay to this report cover sheet. This report must be turned in at the Honors Office Window (Judice-Rickels Hall, Rm 205) no later than Wednesday, April 11, 2018 at 5:00 p.m. Those not meeting the deadline will receive a "NC," NO CREDIT, for the course.  The author of the best essay will receive the Molett First Prize worth $300.00. Second place will receive a $100 prize and two will receive a $50 prize for Honorable Mention.

Essay Topics: Choose one and circle the number of the essay question you selected
After reading your seminar book, please answer, in essay form, one (1) of the following questions:

1. What does the novel say about the relationship between technology and man? If man creates technology, are all the outgrowths of technology outgrowths of human nature?

2. How accurate were Gibson’s predictions about today’s society and its relationship to technology?

3. After reading the novel, where does one’s self exist? How does one know?

4. Does life need a new definition because of evolving technology in the novel and in today’s world?

DON’T FORGET TO CIRCLE THE NUMBER OF THE QUESTION YOU ARE ANSWERING

The essay must be your own original, individual work. Support your generalizations with references to the book. It is not advisable to use secondary sources; however, if you do, you must provide full documentation. The Honors Program has zero tolerance for plagiarism.

Sign below that the essay is your own work and not written in collaboration with anyone else.

________________________________________  ______________________________________
Signature                                               Date

HONORS ART COMPETITION RULES
The best illustration based Neuromancer, by William Gibson. There will also be a $300 prize awarded.

1. The illustration must be hand-drawn in pencil or black ink on white paper, 8 ½ x 11.

2. It must relate to the Honors book or its author in some way.

3. The title of the book and semester must be incorporated into the drawing.

4. The deadline for submission is no later than 5:00 p.m., April 11, 2018